

Key Knowledge: Lesson Sequence: Link to Previous Learning: Haw did the Raman Empire became so weak (part 1) and where did the Anglo Saxans came from (part 2)? Retrieval Activity (Retrieve previously learnt knowledge about the Romans in Britain from Y4 - what can children remember?) Link to Romans in Y4 and how the Roman Empire was previously very powerful. Ieaching (Explore timeline of events and where this unit chronologically fits into the wider Historical framework. Explore the roles of Vortigern, Hengst and Horsa through extensive reading opportunities and watch video of the invasion taking place). How did the Raman Empire became so weak (part 1) and where did the Anglo Saxans came from (part 2)? Vacabulary (Invaders, Conquest) Activity (Explore circumstances surrounding Romans leaving Britain. Part 1: Write up the role each individual played in the Know that the Romans left Britain in AD410 as part of the fall of the Western Roman Empire. Roman demise. Part 2: label the map of where the Anglo Saxons came from). Know that Vartigern was left in charge to defend Britain from the Scots. Key Learning (Chronology: Identifying where periods studied fit into a chronological framework by noting connections, trends Know that Hengst and Horsa were contacted by Vortigern to protect Britain but decided to take over and contrasts over time). (Events, people and change: begin to recognise and describe the nature and extent of diversity, change themselves. and continuity). Know that Britain was weak so tribes from Germany, Holland and Denmark invaded Britain. Haw was Anglo-Sakan Britain arganised? Know that the Anglo-Saxans were made up of Angle, Saxon and Jutes in addition to the Franks, Retrieval Activity (Opened ended question; why did the Angles, Saxons and Jutes find it so easy to invade Britain? and Frisians. Teaching (Show children a map of Anglo Saxon Britain and explain how it was organised. Explore etymology of names as Haw was Analo-Saxan Britain arganised? reading link. 'Debate It' opportunity to explore organisation). Know that Anglo-Saxon Britain was made up of 7 main kingdoms - Northumbria, Mercia, East Vacabulary (Kingdams, Tribes) Analia. Essex. Kent. Sussex and Wessex Activity (Label maps to show the kingdoms of Anglo-Saxon Britain. Geography Link) Know that those who escaped retreated mainly to Wales and Cornwall which never came under Key Learning (Enquiry, interpretation and using sources: Understand how our knowledge of the past is constructed from a range Analo-Saxon rule. of different sources and that different versions of past events often exist, giving some reasons for this. Know that each Kingdom had a ruler/king known as a Cyning. What was life like during Anglo-Saxan Britain? What was life like during Analo-Saxan Britain? Retrieval Activity (Knowledge quiz of what has been learnt so far - retention of key knowledge). Know that a famous discovery of Anglo-Saxon artefacts happened at Sutton Hoo in Suffalk and Ieaching (Explore what life was like in Anglo-Saxon Britain with a facus upon how we know this and what the artefacts tell that artefacts were found by archaeologists in 1939. us. Explain that discoveries of artefacts help us to learn about the past and Sutton Hoo told us lots about the Anglo Saxons.) Know that the outline of an Anglo-Saxon ship was found imprinted in the soil due to the type of SUBJECT WOW - Drama It - Excavation of Sutton Hoo to internalise the shock of the discovery. soil found at Sutton Hoo. Vocabulary (Artefact, Archaeologist, Sarcophagus) Know that number of Anglo-Saxon treasures were found which had been buried in a Sarcophagus. Activity (Historical enquiry of artefacts discovered at Sutton Hoo. Explore finds, asking relevant questions and making Know that these arteficats provide details as to what life was like during Anglo-Saxon Britain. observastions). Who did the Anglo-Saxons warship (part 1) and how did they convert to Christianity (part 2)? Key Learning (Sources - use sources as a basis for research fram which they will begin to use information as evidence to test Know that Anglo-Saxons were mainly Pagan and worshipped many different Gods. hypotheses). (Communicator - Produce structured work that makes connections, draws contrasts, analyses trends, frames Know that similar to the Ramans, Anglo-Saxons had different Gads for different things – Lave, thunder etc and that some of the Anglo-Saxon Gads names are still around today e.g. Wadinsday for historically-walid questions involving thoughtful selection and organisation of relevant historical information using appropriate dates and terms). (Events, people and changes - gaining historical perspective by placing their growing knowledge into different Wednesday. contexts). Know that the Anglo-Saxans orginally didn't follow Christianity but eventually began to follow it. Who did the Anglo-Saxons warship (part 1) and how did they convert to Christianity (part 2)? Know that Augustine was sent to Britain by the Pope and Christianity slowly spread. Retrieval Activity (Speak It' opportunity with exploration of events from Analo Saxon timeline across the unit). To know that the work of Oswald and Columba also turned Britain into a Christian nation. Teaching (Look into the Gods and traditions of Paganism. Explore the conversion to Christianity through watching BBC video Who had cantral of Anglo-Saxon Britain and who was Alfred the Great?? https://www.bbc.cg.uk/bitesize/tapics/zxsbcdm/articles/zs3gcdm and wider reading). Know that a king is the most important person in the kingdom. Vocabulary (Pagan) Know that most of the population were peasant farmers and 10% of the population were slaves. Activity (Part 1: Present It' with quick-fire research about 1 Anglo-Saxan God per group. Part 2: decipher and record the Know that Alfred the Great became king in AD 871 and he is credited with being the first Anglopowerful roles of Augustine. Oswald and Columba in converting Britain to believing in Christian). Saxon king to defeat the Vikings in battle and buy the people of Britain some peace. Key Learning (Enquiry, interpretation and using sources - begin to recognise why some events, people and changes might be Know that the Anglo-Saxon age ended with the Battle of Hastings in 1066 when the Normans judged as more historically significant than others). defeated the Anglo-Saxons. Who had cantral of Analo-Saxon Britain and who was Alfred the Great? Retrieval Activity (Analyse the whole-school KS2 History timeline and explain the events of the Anglo-Saxon era - 'Talk It' opportunity to deepen chronological understanding). Teaching (Explore the hierarchy of control in Anglo-Saxon Britain, including peasants, slaves through to Kings. Focus on the role of Alfred the Great and make concrete links to the Vikings ready for further study within Y6). Vocabulary (conquest). Activity (Create double page spread about Alfred the Great - use a variety of sources to discover information). Key Learning (Events, people and changes - Understanding significant aspects of history - nature of ancient civilisations; expansion and dissolution of empires; characteristic features of non-European societies; achievements and follies of mankind) (Enquiry, interpretation and using sources - Begin to recognise why some events, people and changes might be judged as more historically significant than others). Exit Essay: Explore the three following statements and write an exit essay to explore each point. The Anglo-Saxons were a key period in British History. -I heard the Anglo-Saxons were around way before the Romans! The Anglo-Saxons were in the past - they don't affect my life today. Why do I need to learn about them

Pagan Invaders Conquest Civilisation Missionary Tribes Danelaw

Ruler (Bretwalda)

Kingdoms Artefact

Archaeologist Sarcophagus Peasants

Our Journey Drivers: Local Links Think like a historian by: Eccleston - 'Eccles' means church and Joyful Readers Chronology 'ton' farm. Communication pportunities to Build Upon Knowledge and Skills Events, people & changes nderstanding of British and Enquiry, Interpretation & Learning Sources Christian Values  Resilience and Perseverance National Curriculum Coverage Transferrable Concepts: Nurture Curiosity Britain's settlement by Anglo-Saxons and Scots (Anglo-Change, civilisation, Encourage Articulate Learners Saxon invasions, settlements and kingdoms: place names settlement, invasion, and village life. Anglo-Saxon art and culture). migration, religion, monarch. Ŷ Your Wellbeing and Health Vital Vocabulary

J	Reading spine books with reading embedded throughout all lessons.
0	Knowledge and skills progressively sequenced; see planning overleaf.
U	Worship. Tolerance of other faiths and beliefs.
R	Historical figures taught throughout the curriculum to illustrate resilience and perseverance.
N	WOW – Anglo-Saxon artefact exploration. Use of historical sources throughout lessons. Core Curriculum Reading Spine.
E	Vital vocabulary, oracy opportunities including P4C and speak its, exit task and use of academic keystone words.
У	Place existence into context.